

2010-11 Green Energy Challenge Notices

Thank you for helping to promote the Green Energy Challenge! Following are notices that have been customized to make it easy to spread the word to your members, Facebook Fans, Twitter followers and to post on your website (if possible)!

Email or E-Newsletter Notice:

Calling on all educators! Join the 2010/11 GEF Green Energy Challenge and your class or school could win prizes including environmental books, eco-kits and cash awards. This simple but powerful campaign teaches K-12 students that small changes can add up to big savings for your school community, and lead to a positive impact on the planet. From green classroom pledges to school-wide energy audits, GEF's website features all of the resources necessary to participate in the program. Schools who participate will be spotlighted for their efforts and can enter to win GEF Green in Action Awards. Registration and all featured resources are FREE— visit www.greenenergychallenge.us to learn more and sign up today!
